

I absolutely love the do not call list. I do not have to worry about who is on the other end of the phone when I answer it. Every other call use to be a solicitor. Now I have peace in my home. It would be a big mistake to change the Do no call list. I will always be on it.